

KLAAS MULLER

VAN DYCK STUDIO ANTHON

Portrait of Simon De Vos - SOLD

Our work is related to the Iconography-series of Van Dyck, another version (by Van Dyck?) in the possession of the Duke of Buccleuch in Boughton House. The portrait is engraved by Paulus Pontius. Simon De Vos was a famous Antwerp painter and well-known art-dealer. For the moment our painting is under research by the JVDPPP-project.

Oil on oak panel, 243 x 165mm

Circa: ca 1640

test description

Artist description:

N/A