

KLAAS MULLER

J A N I E V E N S

Forest landscape with figures

Jan Lievens' (Leiden 1607 - Amsterdam 1674) landscapes were strongly influenced by Flemish Masters, in particular Rubens. A dense forest combined with a minimum of incidence of light. Human figures are usually second-rate and hardly elaborated.

Similar landscapes by the artist can be found in Germany and London (British Museum, London, Museum Number 1895,0915.1198).

Pencil, Brown ink and lavis

21.5 x 36 cm (8 1/2 x 14 1/8 inches)

PRICE: 6,500 euro

