Landscape with travellers near a bridge

A rare oval (egg) shaped painting on a lime wood panel

We see a herd of goats and their shepherds on the bridge, one of the shepherds is on a horse, the others look at the men near the riverbank.

Two standing figures are pointing and discussing with one another, while the other one is sitting and relaxing after a long trip.

Oil on oval lime wood panel, 26,5 x 34,5 cm
